Volunteer Code of Conduct

As an Alumni volunteer, you are an ambassador of the University. In furtherance of maintaining and promoting UConn's reputation for excellence and integrity, volunteers are expected to conduct themselves in accordance with the highest moral and ethical standards.

This Volunteer Code of Conduct applies to all Alumni Volunteers, including, but not limited to those serving as regional and affinity group leaders, school/college board members, reunion committee members, admissions volunteers, members committees, and alumni mentors. As a condition of service, Alumni Volunteers must abide by this Volunteer Code of Conduct and annually subscribe to it.

As an alumni volunteer I agree to uphold the following values set forth by UConn and supported by the UConn Foundation:

- Excellence: We pursue exceptional outcomes.
- Integrity: We commit to honesty, ethical behavior and accountability.
- Inclusion: We create a civil, supportive and respectful environment where difference and diversity are sources of strength.
- Collaboration: We believe that working together produces better outcomes.
- Curiosity: We expect inquiry, exploration, creativity and innovation.
- Stewardship: We care for and conserve the human, economic, physical and environmental resources entrusted to us.

As an alumni volunteer, I agree to:

- Interact with all members of the UConn community in a responsible, appropriate, and professional manner, respecting the worth and dignity of individuals, pluralism and diversity;
- Conduct all transactions and dealings with honesty, integrity and the highest standards of ethics;
- Steward resources responsibly;
- Disclose any potential conflict of interest or appearance of conflict immediately to my assigned liaison;
- Only use UConn trademarks and logos as authorized;
- Maintain the confidentiality of all confidential information to which I am exposed to as a volunteer, except as required by law;
